

Kamerata Novi Sad is the City Chamber Orchestra of Novi Sad and one of Serbia's leading chamber ensembles, with an artistic tradition spanning more than three decades. Building on the legacy of Camerata Academica, founded in 1988, the ensemble was re-established in 2007 by cellist and Artistic Director Marko Miletić. Kamerata develops carefully conceived concert programmes and original projects that often connect classical music with other art forms and contemporary social themes, collaborating with distinguished international artists. Among its major projects are Carmina Burana with Stefan Milenković and Report on the Blind featuring John Malkovich and Anastasia Terenkova. In recognition of its artistic achievements, Kamerata Novi Sad received the Orchestra of the Year Award from Muzika Klasika magazine for 2025.
